ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge. We are authorized to announce A. G. McDOUGAL as a candidate for Judge of the 12th Circuit, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Walker.

We are happy to inform our patriotic public that another concert for the benefit of our volunteers, is to be given some time next week, under the auspices of the "Soldier's Relief Society," and to be conducted by the popular musician and composer, Dr. Becker. No doubt but it will be a success.

NASHVILLE & KETTUCKY RAILROAD-FOR MEMPHIS AND THE WEST .- The completion of the Tennessee River Bridge perfects the connection of this road with all the railroads West and South. By reference to the advertisement in another column it will be seen that an important change of schedule commences on the 13th inst., when the express train for all the Southwestern cities leaves at

PADUCAH, Oct. 27 .- Three companies of the Ninth Illinois went to Saratoga, 48 miles up the Cumberland river, on Saturday, and attacked a company of rebel cavalry 100 strong, completely routing them. The rebel loss was 13 killed, 24 prisoners, 52 horses and all the camp equipage. The Federals had

The above dispatch, published in the Northern papers, gives their usual lying exaggerations. The truth is that only four prisoners were taken and two of our men killed. Eight of the horses were killed, four wounded and fifteen captured. About 25 or 30 old shot guns were captured by the enemy. Wilcox will not be soon caught napping again, and most terrible will his revenge be measured out upon the Hessian birelings.

Capt. J. H. Marshall, late of St. Louis and Memphis Packet Line, and formerly of Pittsburg, was Captain of the Yazoo, that was sent out from our shore to meet our steamer. Commodore Graham and him being old friends, of course were soon exchanging friendly salutations, and had a good time generally. "Windy" was pleased, no doubt, to hear the whereabouts of his friends in God's country .- Cin. Com.

If Capt. "Windy" Marshall belongs in Pittsburg, what is he doing at Columbus in command of one of our boats?

THE ZOUAVES ARE COMING .- The Inkerman Zouaves, about whose identity there can be no dispute, will pay the citizens of Nashville a visit on Wednesday next. There is something about the name of "Zouave" that is highly pleasing to Southern ears in these "piping times of"--war. We sing the Marseillaise now instead of the Star Spangled Banner, and our military men, in their uniforms, come as near the Zonave dress as possible. The daring deeds of the heroic body of French soldiery have filled the world with admiration. None are more willing to accord them all praise than the chivalrous sons of the Sunny South. We are certain that the Nashville Theatre will be filled nightly to witness the performances of the Zouaves, who, amidst the dreariness of a long and ardueus campaign in the Crimea, could find ime to indulge in theatricals when every one else almost was thinking of home and its comforts. On one occasion, in the Crimea. while the same company were performing at their little "Theatre d'Inkerman," the Russians made a sortie upon the French lines. The Thespians flew to arms, with their comrades, while in stage attire, and completely repulsed their enemy. After it was all over, they returned to the Theatre and resumed
